

Message from John

Jesus transforms people like me and you. In our Sunday morning services in May we're looking at accounts of ordinary people who met Jesus and were transformed by him. They had their lives re-ordered into something more beautiful by God's amazing power. We also remember how the disciples were transformed by the Holy Spirit. Where there was despair, they found hope and strength. They responded to God's call to 'go out', seeking to tell others and transform the world together. The church was born and Christians today are also called to respond to that call, together.

Jesus promises to transform our own lives too. If we turn to him, trust in him and live in him, the love of Jesus transforms our hearts. If we walk with him and listen to him we see with his eyes. We see the good and the potential for good. We see the opportunities of life, opportunities to share in his love and truth even through times of difficulty. Opportunities to encourage, forgive, bless and nurture. Today's partial transformations in us, and most of all the transformational resurrection of Jesus, remind us that one day our transformation will be complete in heaven.

Peace and Blessings,
John

"Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind"
Romans 12:2

Llanddwywe Camps

Family camps are booking up fast. There is still space on Camp 3 - 13th to 17th August. Please speak to Penny if you would like to go.

Would you spare a little time to join our site volunteers? The camps are organised by Urban Saints Wales - in partnership with Bangor Diocese. We need volunteers to set up & take down the site at Llanddwywe (Near Harlech). We are able to feed all volunteers and overnight camping accommodation can be provided. Help is needed with:

- Putting up/taking down tents
- Erecting/taking down marquees
- Plumbing and electrics
- Cleaning & packing/unpacking equipment
- Making tea/catering for others volunteering.

Work party weekend - Friday 25th to Sunday 27th May 2018. Willing and able volunteers aged 14+ who are up for hard work are needed. We will be checking & waterproofing tents, cutting back trees, sorting equipment & much more to prepare for the summer. It is important that we know who is coming to help.
